Rome, Feb. 1. N. S.

THE Points of Ceremony relating to the Reception of the Queen-Dowager of Poland, and the Honours to be paid her during her ſtay at this Court, are now fully ſettled by the Congregation of Cardinals, whom the Pope had appointed to conſider theſe Matters, and ſhe is to be Treated in all reſpects in the ſame manner as was the late Queen Chriſtiana of Sweden. The Pope has writ to her by Signior Zondedari, who is gone with ſome Perſons of Quality to meet her at Ferrara, and is to attend her in her Journey hither, the Expence of which will be defrayed by the Pope; She intends to paſs the Carnaval at Bolonia. Prince Livio Odeſchalci, in whoſe Palace ſhe is to lodge during her abode in this City, has cauſed the ſame to be ſplendidly furniſhed. It's ſaid, Signior Archinto, who now reſides as Nuncio at the Court of Spain, will be made a Cardinal at the next Promotion, and that the Pope intends to give him the Arch-Biſhoprick of Milan, vacant by the Death of Cardinal Caccia. Cardinal Giudici, who is entruſted with the Management of the Affairs of Spain at this Court, till an Ambaſſador be ſent hither from Madrid, is gone for Gaeta to confer with the Vice-Roy of Naples. The Pope does ſtill refuſe to admit the Imperial Ambaſſador to Audience. The Congregation, who have under Conſideration the Arch-Biſhop of Cambray's Book, meet twice a week to examine the ſame, and they ſeem at preſent inclined to condemn it.

Milan, Jan. 21. Cardinal Caccia, the late Arch-Biſhop of this Place, was Interred here laſt Friday with great Solemnity. Prince Charles of Vaudemont is gone for Vienna, to be preſent at the Celebration of the King of the Romans Marriage. An Order is publiſhed here, forbidding all Perſons to wear any other Weapons than their Swords during the Carnaval, under pain of a Fine of 6000 Crowns and 10 years Impriſonment to Noblemen, and of 10 years Confinement to the Gallies to others.

Venice, Feb. 3. Signior Boſinelli, lately choſen by the Senate to be Great Chancellor of this Republick, made his Publick Entry here on Tueſday laſt, which was very Magnificent. Signior Aluiſio Foſcarini, who attended the Queen of the Romans in her Paſſage through the Venetian Territories with the Character of Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the Republick, is returned hither from Verona, and has given the Senate an Account of his having performed that Commiſſion. The Sieur Lenoncourt, Envoy from the Duke of Lorraine, is on his departure home. A Convoy is ready to ſail from hence with the firſt fair Wind for the Levant, under Command of Signior Angelo Foſcarini.

Cadiz, Jan. 20. The Sidney, Caleb Grantham Maſter, arrived here laſt week from Lisbon; as did likewiſe the Mercury Galley, George Tricky Commander, from Genoua. The Olive-Tree, Captain Simms, is ſailed from this Place for Briſtol; As are alſo the Mary Ketch, Martin Brookes Commander, for Alicant; the Jane, Adam Luxton Commander, and the George, Stephen Payne Commander, for Malaga; the Mary, Captain William Bill, and the Good Intention, Captain John Marr, for Marſeilles; and the Levant Galley, Captain Matthew Thomas Commander, for Malaga.

Madrid, Jan. 30. The Moors continuing ſtill before Ceuta, this Court ſeems to have taken a Reſolution to ſend thither ſuch a number of Troops as may be ſufficient to oblige them to quit the Siege, and accordingly Orders are given to draw together the Forces as are near the Sea-Coaſt, in order to ſend them over to Barbary. The Marquis St. Vincent is made Vice-Roy of Navarre, and is gone from hence to that Kingdom. The Biſhop of Ceuta is made Biſhop of Pamplona, and the Biſhop of Segovia is tranſlated to the Biſhoprick of Placentia; It's not yet known to whom the King will give the two vacant Biſhopricks of Segovia and Ceuta. Dom Pimiento, Governor of Carthagena, who is now at Cadiz, has received Orders to ſail forthwith for the Weſt-Indies with 2 Men of War and 3 Petaches, that have been fitted out there for that Voyage; And it's ſaid, that the Flota for New-Spain will ſail about Midſummer. The Government of Peru is not yet diſpoſed of, but it's thought, the King will beſtow it on the Count of Eril.

Dantzick, Febr. 5. The Queen of Poland is expected here in the Spring from Saxony, and it's ſaid, the King intends to come as far as this Place to meet her, and conduct her to Warſaw; She brings with her, her Chaplain, and her other Lutheran
